CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS PLANNED BY SCHOOL

During the past week the grades have been very busy preparing for their Christmas program. Miss Darneille and Miss Aitken are giving their program together. The pupils have drawn numbers which correspond to names and will bring presents for them. A number of Christmas songs, recitations and plays will make the program, to which all parents are invited to attend at 8 o'clock Friday afternoon, December 20.

The pupils of Mr. Haan's room are giving a play, "The Christmas Guest," and several recitations and songs.

The High School program to be given Friday December 20, at 8 o'clock, is being arranged by the dramatic committee. Clarky Carlton will give a recitation, "Through the Telephone"; Elsie Loveland will play a piano solo.

SHOWER CONTEST HAS GOOD RESULTS

The last minutes of the shower contest were put to good use last Friday noon. When school dismissed for lunch hour the score stood $54 for Mary's team and $33 for Kirch's team. By one o'clock the scores were raised considerably but Mary was still ahead with $74 and Kirch $50.

Donald Young was the high score man with $28 subscribed. He will be rewarded with some nice present from the student body. Mary Hannaford was second with $25.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS

Another year has rolled around and once again jolly old Santa is due for his annual visit to lands far and near. This familiar old Saint has been loved by both young and old for countless years. The myth has been told and retold to many generations of eager listeners.

To the young folks the coming of Santa Claus is something to look forward to for several months previous. Many mothers quell bits of mischievousness by the warning, "I'll tell Santa if your not good."

For the older people the spirit of the Yuletide season is the most beautiful of all the year; the spirit of giving and joy is everywhere.

Another important date hovers near that of Christmas; it is a time when many good resolutions are made for the start of a new year. The English III class wishes the community "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." M. W.
